Attorney General Griffin Announces Arrest of Woman Financially Exploiting Elderly Father and Stepmother

Griffin: '[T]here is no tolerance for the exploitation of the vulnerable in our state'

LITTLE ROCK – Following the arrest of Ashley Hatcher-Rohm, 44, of Sherwood on two felony counts of exploitation, Attorney General Tim Griffin issued the following statement:

“Thanks to the excellent work of my office’s Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, we were able to arrest Ashley Hatcher-Rohm on two counts of Exploiting an Endangered or Impaired Person, both Class B Felonies. My office is committed to using all its resources to secure a conviction in this case, and I remind Arkansans that there is no tolerance for the exploitation of the vulnerable in our state.”

Hatcher-Rohm is accused of fraudulently withdrawing more than $9,000 from an account belonging to her father and stepmother while they were staying in a local nursing home. She was booked into the Pulaski County Regional Detention Facility awaiting arraignment.

Being convicted of a Class B Felony can result in a sentence from five to 20 years in prison and a maximum fine of $15,000 per count.

About Attorney General Tim Griffin

Tim Griffin was sworn in as the 57th Attorney General of Arkansas on January 10, 2023, having previously served as the state's 20th Lieutenant Governor from 2015-2023. From 2011-2015, Griffin served as the 24th representative of Arkansas's Second Congressional District, where he served on the House Committee on Ways and Means, House Armed Services Committee, House Committee on Foreign Affairs, House Committee on Ethics and House Committee on the Judiciary while also serving as a Deputy Whip for the Majority.

Griffin has served as an officer in the U.S. Army Reserve Judge Advocate General's (JAG) Corps for more than 27 years and currently holds the rank of colonel. In 2005, Griffin was mobilized to active duty as an Army prosecutor at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, and served with the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) in Mosul, Iraq.

He is currently serving as the Commander of the 2d Legal Operations Detachment in New Orleans, Louisiana. His previous assignments include serving as the Commander of the 134th Legal Operations Detachment at Fort Liberty (née Bragg), North Carolina, and as a Senior Legislative Advisor to the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness at the Pentagon. Griffin earned a master's degree in strategic studies as a Distinguished Honor Graduate from the U.S. Army War College, Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania.

Griffin also served as U.S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Arkansas, and Special Assistant to the President and Deputy Director of Political Affairs for President George W. Bush; Special Assistant to Assistant Attorney General Michael Chertoff, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice; Special Assistant U.S. Attorney, U.S. Attorney's Office, Eastern District of Arkansas; Senior Investigative Counsel, Government Reform and Oversight Committee, U.S. House of Representatives; and Associate Independent Counsel, Office of Independent Counsel David M. Barrett, In re: HUD Secretary Henry Cisneros.

Griffin is a graduate of Magnolia High School, Hendrix College in Conway, and Tulane Law School in New Orleans. He attended graduate school at Oxford University. He is admitted to practice law in Arkansas (active) and Louisiana (inactive). Griffin lives in Little Rock with his wife, Elizabeth, a Camden native, and their three children.
